

What you do and what you need matters
to us.

LET US HELP YOU REAP
THE BENEFITS OF A GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAIN.

Getting you closer to the source

TradeLink International is your eye on the world of special ingredients such as organic and conventional ancient grains, superfoods, gluten free flours and other grains and seeds. We monitor the growing, from plantation to harvest. We get involved in production, we maintain quality control, find the best product at the best price and then arrange shipping and delivery to you. We forecast the market and constantly look for 'a better way', so you can get on with your job as a buyer, with the peace of mind your back is covered by our team.

TESTING

TradeLink gets every batch we export thoroughly tested by an external laboratory.

LOGISTICS

With 25 years' experience behind us, your product is in good hands.

UPDATES

We proactively update you on the status of your order through our weekly email updates.

GLOBAL

We use our knowledge on global supply to help you meet your challenges.

ABOUT US

Since 1994, TradeLink has been specialising in premium food products, giving our valued customers global supply options with exceptional service, value and quality standards. Today TradeLink serves their customers from offices in Auckland and Buenos Aires.

OUR SERVICES

TradeLink is a global supply company focused on ancient grains and frozen fruit, helping buyers secure supplies direct from the source, whilst saving them time and reducing the risks that come with cross-cultural and overseas buying.
